

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law.

The present Indiana Law has improved our time in our home by not receiving so many calls disrupting our lives. We used to receive 10-15 calls a week and now since the law has been imposed we hardly receive 1-2 calls a week. Thank you for your consideration.

Thomas E. Trowbridge Sr.